Short Description
UL-3450 – Chakra Pro Medallion #1: The Sacred Root

Orgo-Life® Quantum Push® Technology – Professional Series

Introduction: A Conceptual Creation for the Quantum Era

The UL-3450 Chakra Pro Medallion #1 – The Sacred Root was created with a clear intention: to offer a professional vibrational tool capable of stabilizing the human energetic field in an era of sensory overload, silent anxiety and fragmented Qi. Designed within the spirit of Period 9 — the era of Fire, amplified consciousness and precise energetic structuring — this medallion aims to meet the fundamental need for emotional safety, natural grounding and inner centering.

Description
Its vibrational architecture is built on the synergy of 4 crystals wrapped in pure copper wire, activated by Orgo-Life® Quantum Push® technology, offering a stable and durable frequency coherence. The medallion acts as a micro-vibrational generator that harmonizes the frequencies of the root chakra and restores inner strength, confidence and stability.

Created for individuals experiencing stress, mental turbulence, conflicts, professional pressure or emotional instability, it helps reconnect the wearer to their foundation, identity and life axis.

Operating Method & Professional Specifications

The UL-3450 operates through three exclusive Orgo-Life® technological pillars:

1. Circular Quantum Resonance

The 4 crystals arranged in a calculated geometry create an energetic vortex that stabilizes the bio-electro-magnetic field. Copper wire acts as a vibrational catalyst, increasing the speed of subtle-wave propagation.

2. Integrated Quantum Push®

This exclusive technology instantly amplifies the medallion’s frequency when worn against the skin or when a specific intention is expressed.
It creates a pushing effect that strengthens life-force energy and reduces the impact of negative influences.

3. Sacred Root Chakra Anchoring

The UL-3450 emits a stable vibration related to safety, survival, identity and inner structural strength.
It is especially useful to:
• calm deep stress
• reduce mental agitation
• stabilize emotions
• restore bodily presence
• support physical energy and courage

Its PRO engineering offers an optimal energetic radius suited for practitioners, teachers, wellness workers, and clients with high vibrational demand.

A Unique Vibrational Work: Sacred Alchemy of the 5 Elements

The UL-3450 draws its logic from the wisdom of the 5 Elements:

- Earth: stability, grounding, presence
  • Fire: activation of vital Qi
  • Metal: mental clarity and discernment
  • Water: emotional fluidity
  • Wood: inner growth

The combination creates a vibrational spiral that nourishes the root and elevates consciousness.
The root chakra is the foundation of all energetic progression — without it, no higher chakra ascension is sustainable.

Each medallion is activated according to Orgo-Life® vibrational standards — impossible to reproduce elsewhere.

85% Dark Chocolate Test: Instant Demonstration of Energetic Coherence

A surprising test demonstrating UL-3450’s vibrational influence:

Place a piece of 85% dark chocolate on the medallion for 10 seconds.

Reported effects:
• bitterness decreases

• texture softens
• density harmonizes
• flavor becomes rounder and deeper

This reflects the vibrational reorganization created by the crystal-coil structure and Quantum Push® frequency field.
